

9th October 2023

News Release

CdR Strengthens Geneva Board with the Appointment of Caroline Greenwald

CdR Capital, a global private investment group, is pleased to announce that Caroline Greenwald has agreed to join the CdR board in Geneva as a Non-Executive Director (subject to final FINMA approval).

Caroline is the co-managing member of one of New York's long-established hedge funds, P. Schoenfeld Asset Management (PSAM), and is regularly cited as one of the leading executives in the US alternative industry. Caroline brings to CdR wide-ranging experience spanning the international regulatory and investment landscape. Additionally, she brings powerful insights on philanthropy and next generation female leadership.

"We are grateful to Caroline and her partners at PSAM for their ongoing support and friendship and look forward to benefiting from Caroline's stewardship and unique expertise in the future."

For media enquiries, journalists should contact:

Jenny Hennessy
COO
CdR Capital SA
+41 22 317 81 33
j.hennessy@cdr-capital.com

CdR Capital

CdR Capital was originally founded in 2012 by Omar Ayache and Steve Smith in Geneva as a private investment office, serving a core group of large families and institutions. It also has offices in London and Dubai.

More on CdR-Capital.com